

Conference Speakers Biography

Full name of the speaker	Dr Clare Donnellan
Name of the institution where the speaker works full time	Leeds Teaching Hospitals Trust Work at both Leeds General Infirmary and St. James's University Hospital (2 hospitals within the Leeds Trust)
Current position	Consultant Gastroenterologist
Number of years of work experience	10 as a consultant, 21 as a doctor
Special topics	Gastroenterology, nutrition, late effects of cancer
Doctorate	YES (MD) If YES, please provide the year: 2006
M.A. Degree	NO If YES, please provide the year:
Chief Physician (Primarius)	NO If YES, please provide the year:
Academic Specialist Studies	NO If YES, please provide the year:
Academic Professional Studies	NO If YES, please provide the year:
Subspecialty	YES See above If YES, please provide the year:
Specialization	YES See above If YES, please provide the year:
High / higher / secondary education (undercut)	YES FRCP If YES, please provide the year: 2014
Representative references in the last ten years (give up to 5 references)	1. Teo MT, Sebag-Montefiore D, Donnellan CF. Prevention and management of radiation-induced late gastrointestinal toxicity. Clinical Oncology 2015 27(11):656-67 2. Andreyev J, Ross P, Donnellan C, Lennan E, Leonard P, Waters C, Wedlake L, Bridgewater J, Glynne-Jones R, Allum W, Chau I, Wilson R, Ferry D. Guidance on the management of diarrhoea during cancer chemotherapy. Lancet Oncology 2014 15(10): e447-60 3. Donnellan CF, Yann LH, Lal S. Nutritional management of

	Crohn's Disease. Therap Adv Gastroenterology 2013 6(3):231-42 4. 5.
Number of works from SCI (SSCI) list (give up to 5):
Current participation in research projects :	1. N/A 2. 3.
Training (up to 150 words) :	I qualified from St. Bartholomew's Medical School, did a general medical rotation in Devon and moved to Yorkshire for my specialist gastroenterology training, during which time I did a research degree focusing on biomarkers to identify patients at risk of developing oesophageal cancer. As a consultant I run a nutrition team and have also focused on looking after patients with late effects of cancer (particularly those with pelvic radiation disease).
Other information that you consider relevant (up to 100 words)

--	--